

A LAST LITTLE PIECE OF OLD KEY WEST

SCHOONER WHARF BAR

"The difference is the Schooner does them better. The oysters and shrimp are impeccably fresh, the chowder flavorful and spicy... The mojo-marinated fish sandwich is great."

A Little Bit About Schooner Wharf

The Key West Bight is rich in maritime history. In the mid to late 1800s, active wreck salvaging, sponging, and conch and turtle markets thrived here. The 1950s' shrimping fleet consisted of 300 boats docked here at the Bight. "Pink Gold" were de-headed in our back room, and local legend Captain Tony and Sloppy Joe's owner Sid Snelgrove told tales of their short-lived shrimping careers at this site.

Paul and Evalena Worthington sailed into Key West in November of 1984 on the classic 1926 Alden Schooner Defiance. The Worthingtons' dream was to create a Historic Seaport district at the Key West Bight. Within a few short years Key West Seaport and Schooner Wharf Bar had become home to the largest fleet of working schooners on the East Coast. They also created the largest marine fuel dealership south of Miami.

The bar began aboard the Brigantine Diamante in early 1986 as a living room for the waterfront community. Eventually it was moved ashore, where a diving board served as the bar top, the top shelf liquor was kept in the top drawer of a filing cabinet, and an eclectic "salvage décor" was created.

Schooner Wharf evolved into a favorite with locals and tourists alike.

As we grew, a galley was added to serve up fresh-caught local seafood, a raw bar and other island cuisine.

Schooner Wharf organizes more than 30 events each year, including the Holiday Lighted Boat Parade, Wreckers' Races, Minimal Regatta, and The Battle of the Bars, we also feature live music and magic daily. Come join the fun!!!

Many of our crew, as well as our customers, have been with us for nearly 20 years. And countless famous faces have graced the bar. After his visit to Schooner Wharf, the late broadcaster/author Charles Kurault remarked, "This must be the center of the universe."

And in the words of world-famous local treasure salvager Mel Fisher, "This place is a treasure." We're glad you've discovered us, too! Make yourself at home and be part of the unique atmosphere that is Schooner Wharf Bar.
